WORLD x CYCLE

INTRODUCTION

The World By Cycle expedition is a bicycle circumnavigation of the world that explores the origin stories of everyday things, bringing Adventure Learning to classroom education!

The Adventure Learning program Ride To Learn thematizes global citizenship, sustainability, and humane education through a variety of engaging and interactive multimedia teaching resources.

The main objective of Ride To Learn is to provide a supportive environment in which participants can create and collaborate on solutions to the real life global challenges they learn about in the context of a live cycling expedition.
